3. Each team shall cover its own transportation, meals, clothing and other related expenses during the competition.
  4. Teams shall obey the safety guidelines set out by the organizer's training staff and lifeguards during practice and competitions. All team members must wear life vests (See instruction in Appendix 12) during competition and training/practice, and must be able to swim. All teams shall take full responsibility for their own safety during pre-match training and competition.
  5. In both practice and competition period, all participants must sign up their training time accordingly and follow "2021 Taipei International Dragon Boat Championships Safety Guidelines" (Appendix 8). The Pre-training schedule will be based on the order in which teams registered for their training sessions.
  6. In case of a natural disaster or unpredictable events, the organizer has the right to suspend or delay matches. In such case, subsidies will be issued as usual. Prize money will be awarded or cancelled at the discretion of the organizers depending on the progress of the competition.
  7. The Organizing Committee may request compensation from the team which causes boats damage by any wrong doing or capsizing, or if any equipment lost, damaged or any third person injury during practice or competition. The organizer reserves the right of prosecution.
  8. It is required that all teams and crew members follow the organizer staff, lifeguard and administrative officers' safety guideline and guidance. If violation occurred and confirmed to be true, the subsidy will be cut in half for the first offence. The full subsidy will be cancelled for the second violation.
  9. Should any team or team member not accept the Organizing Committee's judgment, or any violation such as listed in XVI-8. (9) and XVI-8. (11), disturb or disrupt the order of the event or act in unsportsmanlike manner or acts in any other manner deemed as unsuitable by the Referee Committee. The Organizing Committee may notify the appropriate institution, organization or school to sanction or forbid the aforementioned team or team member(s) from participating in the following year's competition.
  10. All staff members of the Organizing Committee and judges are not allowed to participate as members or officials for any team.

11. The winner's prize money is regarded as an income, and therefore must follow the Consolidated Income Tax rules of Taiwan accordingly. Government organizations and schools need to file the tax deduction for their teams. The tax deduction of private institutes or social communities will be filed through the assistance of organization commissioned by Department of Sports.

XX. Any further information or revision of the regulations will be adopted and announced by the Organizer as it occurs.
